NOVELLO'S Cathedral Choir Book.

TO THE SUBSCRIBERS & PATRONS.

This Work which has been several months in preparation, and was undertaken at the instance of many friends, will consist of the Music adapted to the Services of the English Church, by well known Cathedral Composers, from the 16th century to the present time, and several Original Compositions never before published. The portions adapted to the MORNING SERVICE will be published distinctly from those for the EVENING SERVICE; and the paging will be so arranged for binding. Every portion of the Service which is appointed "to be sung" will be included in the course of the Work; but a greater variety of Music adapted to the Te Deum, Jubilate, Kyrie Eleeson, Magnificat, and Nunc Dimittis, will be inserted, as being most frequently used. The Tenor part will be printed in its original clef; and, in order to make the Work as generally useful as possible, it will be published not only at a very low price, but in the

On the First of each Month will be published, 24 pages of Vocal Score (without Accompaniment), to correspond with the Music contained in the Organ Score. #### III.

On the First of each Month will be published, the Vocal Parts, each Part occupying six pages, to correspond with the Music contained in the Scores. The size of the book and note will be the same as in the Vocal Score. Price of each Vocal Part, Fourpence.

On the commencement of the two fresh Works named above, in continuation of the proposed Series of Cheap Oratorios, the Publisher may be pardoned if he deem it sufficient to refer to the "Creation" and the "Messiah," now just completed, for the style in which they will appear. There are many advantages attendant upon the method of issuing Standard Works in Monthly Parts at a small price: it is a means of placing them within the reach of many who could not otherwise afford them. The only disadvantage that can be urged against periodical issue, is the doubt whether the Work will be completed or punctually published; but the Proprietor hopes that such a doubt has been satisfied, in the present case, by the experience of the past. It is gratifying to look back, and remember that in no single instance has the monthly number failed to be ready at the appointed time.

The Proprietor has to thank those Patrons by whose support he has been able to bring his arduous undertaking to so prosperous a position; and he trusts they will continue their valuable aid, by desiring (as early as possible) the nearest Musicseller, Bookseller, Newsvendor, or Periodical Dealer, to supply the new Works monthly as they appear.
